

Handout 1.4.1

Creating a Social Contract

Bell Ringer

Think back to a class, team, or club in which you had a sense of community — you felt known and valued and you liked being there. It may have been in any grade, at any age. Answer this question: What were two things about that class, team, or club that gave you this feeling?

Reflection/Application

How might you call fouls outside of class?

How might calling fouls help build better relationships?